Biking again: Dennis Ewert climbs back on bike after near-fatal crash last year

By Dwight Sparks - Only the shadow of the blood stain can be seen now. Sun and rain and winter weather have almost removed it. The stain made a more lasting impression on Dennis Ewert and those who witnessed his bicycle accident last year. He looked like a goner — blood spilling from his head onto the pavement. Except for the quick action of Todd Chamberlain, who saw him fall, Ewert figures he would have died. Ewert, 63, lives in Asbury Place and is something of a fitness nut. He routinely rode his bicycle 20 miles — following a route around and around Old ...

Zoning case on agenda

By Summer Smith - The rezoning case for Accel Stores will be back on the agenda Thursday's Town Council meeting in Lewisville.

The case was continued last month after council members and residents expressed concern over the appearance of the proposed convenience store. Accel Stores request that the 3.85 acre site on the southeast corner of the Highway 421/Concord Church intersection be rezoned from RS-20 to LD2-S (Convenience Store).

The plans for the 3,200 square foot, one-story structure showed a block building and council members were in agreement that the proposal was unacceptable. Councilman Dan Pugh said, "This looks like a plastic building, and I don't think a good precedent."

The council sent the case back to the Planning Board so the board could take council suggestions and negotiate with the petitioner.

At the February 6 briefing session, Town Manager John Whitson informed council the petitioner had agreed to use brick instead of block and use a gray or gray-tone for the roof. The petitioner also has the option of using red highlight trim on the building.

Voluntary Annexation

A public hearing on the voluntary annexation of the Wellsprings subdivision is on the meeting agenda.

On January 24, council held a special meeting to discuss a request submitted by residents of the subdivision, a gated community in Pfafftown. The request was prompted by Winston-Salem's plans to annex into Pfafftown.

Wellsprings is made up of 33 lots, some of which are not yet built out. The current property value of the development is $9 million, with an average of $72,000 per lot. A few of the homes have tax value as high as $750,000.

According to Whitson, at the current tax rate the development will generate about $18,000 of property tax value for the town.

Public Hearing on Taxi Service

The council was also hold a public hearing on a proposed ordinance related to tax service regulation.

Michael Frisbee wants to start a taxi and limousine service that would serve both Lewisville and Clemmons. Since the town had no regulations in place for such a : Whitson and the council worked together to draw up an ordinance.

Meeting Time

The Lewisville Town Council's February meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. at the G. G Reynolds Community Center on Lucy Lane,

Happy 200th Birthday

The Village of Clemmons was founded in 1802. This year marks the 200th anniversary of Clemmons. The Clemmons Historical Society wants the bicentennial of the Village to be a year-long celebration.

The celebration began in January with a mural being painted at The Elms which was supervised by the N.C. Museum of Art. The "Living History Festival" was held in April and featured Roy Underhill of UNC-TV's "The Woodwrights Shop" plus many old timey crafts and trades demonstrations, music and food. The festival was held at the Clemmons Civic Center on Middlebrook Drive. While at the "Living History Festival," the Clemmons Village Hall held an open house so everyone could come and see the Hattie Butner Stagecoach. The celebration continued on Sunday afternoon, May 5th, with "Historic Places Tour." The tour included the Stagecoach House, Clemmons family graveyard, Mt. Pleasant Church at Tanglewood. and the old Hope Moravian God's Acre off Hwy 158.

Grass Clippings Pickup Schedule for 2003 - 2nd and 4th Mondays of the following months: April thru July.

Projects in Work

Transportation-Safety. Construction will begin in July to widen Lewisville-Clemmons Road to four lanes with a divided median from Peace Haven to Hwy 421. This project will take five years to complete. The 1-40 Harper Road interchange will add west-side entrance and exit ramps beginning in 2004. Also, construction should begin this summer to place traffic medians at the Lewisville-Clemmons Road and Highway 158 intersection.

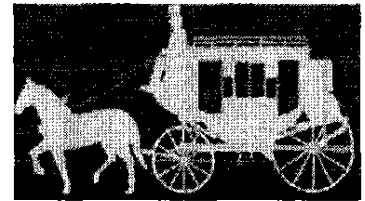

Stormwater Management. Federal Legislation passed in May 1997, ordered communities nationwide to implement a comprehensive stormwater management program by March of 2003. The program is intended to preserve, protect, and improve the Nation's water resources from polluted rainwater runoff. This is an unfunded mandate and will incur significant expense. Costs must be assumed by local jurisdictions and may require an additional utility fee similar to your water and sanitary sewer fee. This program is similar to the stormwater program which Winston-Salem implemented several years ago.

Local News. The Village is now using the local television public access channel to relay important Village information using a rolling news screen. We broadcast Sunday through Saturday on channel 6 from from 10 p.m. to 12 noon, and from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Tune us in!

Home Program. Clemmons participates in this program designed to assist lower income families afford needed structural home repairs through grants. Financial aid can also help potential home buyers qualify for home mortgages. Please contact us for more information on this very worthwhile program.

Sign Ordinance. In May the Village passed a sign ordinance amendment that addresses the height of future signs. Current signs will have ten years to come into compliance with the new standards.
